

Mary-Nelms Parsons is a life-long Episcopalian who has been active in many phases of St. John's parish life. Nelms has previously served on the Vestry; she has worked with EYC. on Bazaar committees, is a member of the Mary & Martha guild, and is currently a Lay Eucharist Minister.

Nelms has spent her business career in Human Resources and is presently a consultant to businesses in her professional field. Nelms and her husband Will, an employee benefits broker, live in Old Cloverdale. They have two 'rescue' Beagles and a Manx. She is also an avid tennis player and enjoys traveling.

Nick Prillaman grew up in Hermitage, Tennessee. He attended the University of Alabama. Nick works with the Retirement Systems of Alabama, and has become a CFA Charterholder. Currently his role is a Portfolio Manager/Fixed Income Analyst specializing in mortgage backed securities. His life at St. John's has been blessed with multiple important events including the marriage to his wife, Allison, the baptisms of their sons, Walker and Henry, and his confirmation. Nick recently completed his term as a lay eucharistic minister and is active in the young adult supper club.

Radney Ramsey has been a member of St John's since 1995. He has served as past Chairman of the Outreach Committee, EYC/YPF Volunteer, Canvasser for Capital Campaigns, Family Promise Volunteer, LEM Reader, Vestry Member, and Junior and Senior Warden. A graduate of the University of Alabama with a Marketing Major from the Business School, Radney works as an Account Manager for McKesson Medical Surgical servicing Primary Care Medical accounts in Central Alabama. He has served locally on the Board of Directors for Hospice of Montgomery, and currently is the Secretary and Board Member for Bridge Builders Alabama. He and Kimberly have three children: Annie, Hawthorne, and John Bushman.

Emily Wise grew up in Memphis. She and her husband Cole began attending St. John's in 2012, they were married here in 2013, & Emily was confirmed here in 2017. Both of their children McKinney & Boyd were baptized at St. John's as well. Emily was Bazaar chair in both 2016 and 2017, she is also a member of the Mary & Martha guild, and the Outreach committee. Along with staying home with her two children, she owns her own business, Emily Wise Photography. Emily says "from the first time we stepped into St. John's we knew it was our church home and look forward to raising our children here."

Non-Profit Organization
U.S. Postage Paid
Permit #376
Montgomery, Alabama
36104

St. John's Episcopal Church
113 Madison Avenue
Montgomery, AL 36104
334-262-1937

Vestry Nominees For the 2019 Election

Annual Meeting Of St. John's Parish

Sunday, January 20, 2019

11:15am-in the parish house

St. John's Episcopal Church

113 Madison Avenue

Montgomery, Alabama

36104

Absentee ballots may be cast any time before election day. Stop by the church office to fill one out. You may also phone or email us your ballot.
334-262-1937
fay@stjohnsmontgomery.org

Betty Beale has been a member of St. Johns since 1983. She is a certified Spiritual Director and serves in that capacity at St. John's. She is a member of the Flower Guild and a Lay Eucharistic Visitor (LEV), the Avis and All Angels Guild, and a Pastoral Care member. Betty received her Doctor of Education degree from the University of Alabama and is retired from Auburn University at Montgomery (AUM). She has two children and 6 grandchildren.

John Carter is 8 years into his second career as an Air Force civilian; he is the Director of Operations for Air University at Maxwell AFB. A retired colonel, he spent 28+ years as an Air Force fighter pilot serving as the vice commander of a fighter wing in Korea, commander of an A-10 squadron and commandant of the Air Force's Top Gun school. At St John's he has served on the Vestry, as a delegate to Diocesan Convention, as a canvasser during stewardship season and as a member of the choir. He and his wife, Melissa, have two adult children, Robert and Hannah.

Tracey Campbell joined St. John's in 2006 and was confirmed in the Episcopal Church in 2007. She has served St. John's in a variety of capacities including as a Sunday School Teacher, participation in rebuilding mission trips to New Orleans and as a volunteer for the Bazaar.

Cont'd on next column

Tracey Campbell cont'd

Tracey completed the EFM course in 2011, currently serves as a Lay Eucharist Minister and on the Flower Delivery Guild, and has been a student in the women's bible study. She is a member of the Mary & Martha Guild. Tracey began her massage therapy practice in 2005, and also works as an outpatient medical record coder at Baptist Medical Center South. Tracey lives in the Cloverdale-Idlewild neighborhood and has two adorable cats.

Rosa Davis has attended St. John's since 1972. She served St. John's as a Church School Teacher, (25 years), a children's chapel leader, a member of the old Parish Council, a vestry member (2 previous terms), Junior and Senior warden, and a member of the search committee for a new rector. Rosa has retired from the state Attorney General's Office after 43 years of service, serving in a number of leadership. Rosa has two adult daughters, Gunter and Eola, and two grandchildren.

Will Gunter was baptized at St. John's longer ago than he cares to admit and confirmed at St. John's in 1995. He has served a previous term on the vestry, participated in several Every Member Canvasses, and graduated from Education for Ministry. He has been heavily involved in the Cursillo movement and served on several different staffs, and has also been on a number of Honduras Mission teams. He is currently a Lay Eucharistic Minister, delivers flowers for the Flower Guild, and is a volunteer for Respite Ministries. He is mostly retired from the practice of law.

Brice Johnston, his wife Susan, and their two daughters, Helen and Sara, moved to Montgomery in 2016 after a decade in Birmingham. Brice was the Junior and Senior Warden at the Church of the Ascension in Vestavia Hills and in that role served on the Financial Planning Committee. Brice was baptized at the Church of the Holy Comforter and confirmed at the Church of the Ascension in Montgomery. Brice is an attorney who has for the past four years served as managing member of Red Mountain Law Group in Birmingham. Brice and his family are active members of St. John's.

Katie Keller has been a member of St. John's since 2010. She serves as Lay Eucharistic Visitor Coordinator and as a Lay Eucharistic Visitor. She is the Tuesday morning volunteer church receptionist, participates in Wednesday morning Centering Prayer, is a member of the Flower Guild and an active member of the Avis and all Angels Guild. Katie co-chaired the Arts and Crafts Room for St. John's 2017 and 2018 Bazaars and is chairperson for St. John's participation in the Loving Spoonfuls Soup Sale to support Holy Cross Episcopal School. She has served on the Board of Directors for Hospice of Montgomery. Katie is a 2019 participant in Montgomery's Nora Project, an intergenerational workshop. She is a consultant to Cornerstone Advisors, an estate and business planning firm. She is the widow of Don Keller.

Keith Miller and his wife, Rebecca, have been members of St. John's since 2000. Keith was brought up in the Baptist Church but was confirmed in 1996 at Christ Church in Mobile, Alabama. Keith and Rebecca have two children, Stewart and Susannah. At St. John's, Keith has served as a high school Sunday School teacher, a lay Eucharistic minister, a member of the Vestry, a delegate to the diocesan convention, a every member canvasser and a host for Family Promise. Keith has also participated in Education for Ministry. Keith is an attorney with Alfa Mutual Insurance Company and is active in a number of professional organizations. He previously served as a member of the Board of Montgomery Chapter of Habitat for Humanity and that organization's Vice President.

Scott Mitchell has attended St. John's since 2013 and was confirmed in the Episcopal Church in 2016. He currently serves as a lay Eucharistic minister. A native of Wilcox County, Scott is a graduate of Erskine College and the University of Alabama School of Law. He is the Clerk of the Alabama Court of Criminal Appeals. He currently serves on the board of Holy Cross Episcopal School. He previously served as Chairman of the Erskine College Board of Trustees.

Scott and his wife, Mary Martin, are the parents of a two-year-old son, Clayton.