

The Rev. Dr. Victor Lee Austin

March 4

The Rev. Canon Victor Lee Austin, Ph.D., theologian-in-residence of the diocese of Dallas, grew up in Oklahoma, went to college in New Mexico, and has served churches in New York. His work has been at the intersection of theology and everyday life, with questions of authority (which he thinks is necessary) and ethics (which he admits is perplexing) and simple on-the-street thinking about being a priest in our world. His latest book is a theological memoir of his wife, titled Losing Susan: Brain Disease, the Priest's Wife, and the God Who Gives and Takes Away. And coming soon is Friendship: The Heart of Being Human. Canon Austin has two grown children and six grandchildren.

The Very Rev. Timothy Kimbrough

March 11

The Very Rev. Timothy Kimbrough is Dean of Christ Church Cathedral in Nashville, TN. He is a graduate of Duke University and Duke University Divinity School. He has also one graduate work at General Theological Seminary in New York City. Bishop Kimbrough has also served as adjunct faculty at the Duke University Divinity School teaching worship in the Anglican tradition and polity. He has just completed a term on the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church with a special focus on domestic and international missions. He has published an English translation of a German volume on Charles Wesley's theology. Additionally, several of his musical compositions have been published in various hymnals and songbooks.

The Rev. Daniel Strandlund

March 18

The Rev. Daniel P. Strandlund grew up in the Diocese of Alabama and served as an associate rector at St. John's Episcopal Church from 2015 until 2017 when he and his wife Lucy moved to Austin, TX. Daniel currently serves as the vicar of St. Elizabeth Episcopal Church in Buda, TX and is pursuing an MA in Systematic and Philosophical Theology through the University of Nottingham. Within the Diocese of West Texas, he serves on the board of examining chaplains and has recently begun teaching in their IONA School for Ministry. Lucy is pursuing ordination and will finish her M.Div at Seminary of the Southwest in Austin, TX this spring.

Children's Lenten series: SYMBOLS OF LENT

Begins March 4th, 6:30pm-7:30pm

Each Wednesday night during Lent, the children (K-6th) are invited to learn about being true disciples for Christ! We will participate in outreach activities, brainstorm ways to be more involved with the community outside of our church home, play games, crafts and much more!

There will be a modified version in the Run-Around-Room for Toddlers-PreK.*

The Very Rev. Richard Lawson

March 25

Richard Lawson is the Dean of Saint John's Cathedral in Denver, Colorado, where he was called in 2017. Richard also served as Rector of Grace-St. Luke's Episcopal Church & School in Memphis and of Saint John's Episcopal Church in Decatur, Alabama. Richard was born and raised in Guntersville, Alabama, and he was ordained in the Diocese of Alabama. Richard's essay on sacraments and symbols was published in Reasonable Radical? Reading the Writings of Martin Percy. His essays have also appeared in the Anglican Theological Review and the Sewanee Theological Review.
